

ID	Functional Requirement
RF-1	The system must allow user registration.
RF-2	The system must have user roles, including administrator and roommate.
RF-3	The system must allow the creation of house entities representing shared households.
RF-4	The system must allow the creation of expense entities representing shared expenses between users.
RF-5	The system must classify expenses as either fixed or variable.
RF-6	The system must allow the creation of ExpenseDivision entities to enable customized expense distribution among users.
RF-7	The system must allow associating multiple users with the same house.
RF-8	All users must be able to configure their personal data.
RF-9	Administrator users must be able to configure house data.
RF-10	Administrator users must be able to register expense entities.
RF-11	The system must allow registering the payment of a specific expense.
RF-12	The system must record a history of all registered expenses and payments for each user.
RF-13	The system must generate a monthly balance for each user, indicating paid expenses and their respective category.